

Changes in the media ownership rules is wrong and encourage less diversity. It is dangerous for a democracy when all media outlets are controlled by a handful of owners. The airwaves belong to the public...their use is a privilege and was granted in the public interest, not for commercial gain of large corporations. It is not in America's interest to change the rules. You are charged with protection of the people's airwaves. I want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interest. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.
